Accordionist David DiGiuseppe and guitarist Danny Gotham present a dynamic blend of Celtic, French and American music. Combining a technical mastery of their instruments with a passion for their playing, they bring to the stage a deep knowledge of their roots, a love for their art and a fire in their fingers. DiGiuseppe and Gotham infuse new life into past traditions, creating a distinctive sound that is both relevant and captivating.

This will be an acoustic evening to remember.

David was also instrumental in founding the Triangle Folk Music Society, way back in '95.
