"Laura Risk's fiddle is a revelation and achingly beautiful."

-Ken Burns, Grammy-winning filmmaker

Californian Laura Risk began playing Scottish fiddle music as a teenager. Her style is expressive and versatile, ranging from elegant music composed for 18th Century Scottish drawing rooms to driving strathspeys and reels suitable for a Cape Breton dance floor. Laura tours and has been a part of ensembles such as Daryl Anger's "World of Fiddles", Cordelia's Dad, Helicon and Hesperus.

On this tour, Laura teams up with Paddy League, a widely acclaimed performer of Irish music. Paddy is an extremely versatile multi-instrumentalist at home on the guitar, mandolin, bouzouki and concertina. He brings a unique blend of experience, virtuosity, and emotion to his spellbinding interpretations.

The substantial combined talents of these two performers in the intimate setting of a house concert will make for a brilliant musical evening. We hope to see you all there.
